SUMMER INSTITUTE ON QUALITY, RELIABILITY AND DATA SCIENCE

The Summer Institute on Quality, Reliability and Data Science (QRDS) aims to provide an opportunity for group learning and study. It consists of a series of lectures and workshops presented by renowned scholars and experts on important and emerging research topics. The workshop targets early career scientists and postdocs who are working on or interested in entering the fields, and is designed to mix early career scientists with senior scholars for interactive exchanges and discussions.
